

main.py

Visualize

Run

Output

```

1 def find_s(training_data):
2     # Initialize the specific hypothesis with the first positive instance
3     hypothesis = None
4
5     for row in training_data:
6         if row[-1] == 'Yes': # Target concept is positive
7             hypothesis = row[:-1].copy()
8             break
9
10    if hypothesis is None:
11        return "No positive instances found."
12
13    # Update hypothesis based on remaining positive instances
14    for row in training_data:
15        if row[-1] == 'Yes':
16            for i in range(len(hypothesis)):
17                if row[i] != hypothesis[i]:
18                    hypothesis[i] = '?'
19
20    return hypothesis

```

```

Most Specific Hypothesis found by Find-S: ['Sunny', 'Warm', '?'
'Strong', '?', '?']
|
=== Code Execution Successful ===

```